CANADA’S ANTI-SPAM LEGISLATION

Parental consent to receive emails that may contain items considered commercial

In accordance with Canada’s Anti-Spam Legislation, School District No. 20 (Kootenay-Columbia) requires consent to send you what in certain circumstances would constitute a commercial electronic message. Nothing in the Act restricts the district from emailing you newsletters, school or district updates but some emails may be viewed as a commercial electronic message (e.g. information about buying a school yearbook, student photos, book fairs, hot meals or field trips that cost money) or similar events and offers. Any offers or advertising via email will be directly related to the school’s/district’s operations. Your email will not be disclosed to anyone beyond the school, district, or parent advisory councils for business or commercial purposes. To ensure compliance with this legislation we are requesting your consent in writing. Please return the completed consent form to your school principal.

YES – I give my consent to receive email from my school / district / parent advisory council / district parent advisory council for purposes consistent with the above.
